

HOSPITALITY

INDUSTRY REPORT

1

TONGSAI BAY UPGRADES ITS SUITES

Tongsai Bay, Koh Samui, Thailand has upgraded five of its Hillside Cottage Suites to include private pools. The Pool Cottages are all split level and range in size from 68 to 78 square metres, each with a new plunge pool of 20 square metres in size. Elegant, traditional Thai design is present throughout each cottage and dark teak wood contrasts with crisp, white bed linen. The spacious outside terraces feature al fresco bath tubs and day loungers that fringe the edge of the infinity pools.

2

NOBU HOTEL COMES TO LONDON

Nobu Hotel Shoreditch, opening this summer, is to offer guests a unique escape from London's bustle with a clever balance of luxury, craft and theatre. With 143 guest rooms and seven suites, the hotel will feature contemporary designs throughout to reflect the style of its East London surroundings. The Nobu Shoreditch Restaurant, headed by Executive Chef Greg Seregi and supported by Head Sushi Chef Noriyoshi Teruya, will offer diners a menu characteristic of Nobu, with dishes such as Black Cod Miso and Yellowtail Sashimi with Jalapeño. In addition to dining, the hotel will provide guests with event spaces, the Lobby Bar plus a spa and wellness area.

3

EROSANTORINI OPENS IN SANTORINI

Erosantorini has opened its doors on the Greek Island of Santorini. Combining the unrivalled service and facilities of a luxury hotel, with the home-from-home feel of an exquisite private villa, Erosantorini provides privacy, exclusivity and distinctive amenities. Acclaimed international architect and designer Paola Navone has brought her sophisticated Aegean aesthetic to the property, using a palette of colours reflecting the sea and the surrounding landscape. Walls are inlaid with rustic local stone, in contrast to luxurious fabrics by Rubelli Venezia and bath fixtures by Stella of Italy.

4

ES SAADI MARRAKECH RESORT CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

In celebration of Es Saadi Marrakech Resort's 50th anniversary, it is offering a getaway for families. Designed to cater to all ages, Es Saadi invites guests to discover and learn through authentic experiences such as Arabic writing classes and traditional Moroccan dancing tutorials. For a sporting challenge, the resort is hosting tennis, fitness and children's yoga activities, led by experts. Guests staying at the resort can relax in the calm gardens, planted with fragrant orange trees and roses. Facilities include the lagoon swimming pool, Palace Spa and delicious dining options.

5

CONRAD HOTELS AND RESORTS OPENS CONRAD BORA BORA NUI

Adding to the Conrad Hotels and Resorts portfolio, the group has announced the opening of Conrad Bora Bora Nui, its first property in French Polynesia. The new resort blends Tahitian history with modern design and amenities such as the overwater lounge and a swim-up pool bar. Guests can enjoy the full-service Hina Spa, which has seven indoor treatment rooms and one open-air space overlooking the secluded lagoon. Designed with family in mind, the Kids Club, boat tours and mini-golf course are among many activities available at the resort, providing guests of all ages the chance to explore.