

All images © EROSANTORINI

SANTORINI'S SECRET

There are countless reasons to visit the dazzling Greek island of Santorini, but just last month another tempting reason presented itself: EROSANTORINI. The resort features year-round, unrivalled luxury private villas, each designed with exquisite views across the Aegean Sea. Enjoy your own private space, complete with outdoor Jacuzzi and floating fireplace, alongside the resort's 115-foot infinity pool and open-air cinema.

From €5,000 (approx. £4,300) per night, erosantorini.com

TRAVEL ESSENTIAL

You can't leave for warmer climes without those all-important sunglasses. This season, flatter your face with a contemporary coloured pair from Mango. Opt for statement round-frame sunnies with undeniable style and elegance.

£17.99, MANGO, CANADA PLACE

TRAVEL NEWS

THE LATEST IN LUXURY FROM AROUND THE WORLD

WORDS / JOANN KHATIB

CALL OF NATURE

For those seeking an exclusive getaway in a serene location, mixed with a little adventure, look no further than The Lodge at Feline Fields in Botswana. The six-suite luxury lodge is designed with families in mind and is set in one of the most awe-inspiring spots on earth. Watch the sun set from the comfort of your lodge or venture out on exciting safari tours and explore the landscapes Botswana has to offer.

From $890 (approx. £725) per person, per night, felinefields.com

All images © Feline Fields